Secretary Jasper Announces Weights for the St. Leger Handicap, to Be Run on Opening Day-Herkimer Installed in Post of Honor,

Louisville, Ky., September 20.—While the Kentucky Endurance Stakes, at four miles, to be decided October 7 at Churchill Downs, stands forth as the star feature of the eighteen-days fall meeting, there are other great races of more than average interest.

as the star feature of the eighteen-days fall meeting, there are other great races of more than average interest.

The overnight races will be specially notable for the high-class horses contesting in the top price selling races. Al Muller, High Private, Adams Express, Prince Gal, Stare, Rogon, Sticker, Sir Cleges, Colonel Ashmeade, Righteasy, Pajarolta, Belle Clemand Angelus are sure to go in a number of these races. There are many of the same class yet to come from Lexington, Canada and elsewhere, but these are mentioned because they are already quartered at the Downs.

Al Muller has been working musually well and he acts as if he can stay as well as sprint. Age apparently has improved this son of Sorcerer. His legs look unusually sound. High Private looks as fit as hands can make him. He has all his speed.

There is not a horse named above that is not training well, so it is a certainty that some of the selling races will be highly attractive.

Pardner, a two-year-old that Lon Johnson bought from S. C. Hildreth, impresses the work-watchers as a youngster of more than average class. He seemingly is able to run in any sort of going and, while he has brilliant speed, he acts as if he is a stayer. As the $10,000 Worth came on the track at the Downs Monday, the railbirds, with one voice, shouted: "There come a horse." While trainer Frank Taylor had the colt on the track, Worth was the center of all eyes. He appears stouter than he did last spring. Worth is a poor work horse and to get his best effort it is necessary that he be carried along by some fast performer. Trainer Taylor, however, works him alone, as he does not care to make a practice of working an older horse within and he does not wart Worth to "kill off" his egoed effect upon him. His owner, H. C. Hallenbeck, thinks Worth will win the Kentucky Derbyhext spring.

Edward Jasper, acting racing secretary of the Louisville Racing Association, today announced the weights for the St. Leger Handicap, at one mile and one-sixteenth, to be run next Monday, the opening day of the eighteen-days' meeting. Herkimer is asked to carry top weight of 122 pounds. Countless is accorded second honor with 118 pounds, while Fauntleroy is given 116 pounds. This race was first run in 1875, when King Alfonso, famed later as a sire, was the winner. It was then a race for three-year-olds. It was discontinued in 1892. Its last winner was Semper Rex. Last year the Louisville Racing Association revived the event as an all-aged race, when it was won by the noted mare, King's Daughter. The weights in full follow:

The star feature of the work this morning at the Downs and Douglas Park was the performance of Herkimer, in the stable of H. C. Hallenbeck, over the former course. Over a drying out track he worked three-quarters in 1:16\(\frac{3}{2}\), running the first quarter in 24\(\frac{1}{2}\), three-eighths in 39, a half in 49\(\frac{1}{2}\), and five-eighths in 1:03. A majority of the horses which worked did so in anticipation of a fast track tomorrow, when they will be let down to the limit. Among those caught by the clockers were the following:

Cash on Delivery and The Reach, and all are fit and ready to race.

Peter Wimmer will not move his horses from Douglas Park during the coming meeting here, but he changed his stable today at the latter place, moving into the barn vacated by C. C. Van Meter, who went to the Downs several days ago.

Among the early arrivals for the coming meeting is C. R. Ellison, who won the Kentucky Derby in 1903 with Judge Himes.

Frank Smith arrived from St. Louis with three hwo-year-olds, which he quartered at Douglas Park. They are all maidens and were bred by Barney Schreiber, two of the lot being by Sain.

Stalls are bedded down for the reception of the horses trained by Henry McDaniel, which are expected to arrive at Churchill Downs within the next twenty-four hours. Mr. McDaniel will leave Lexington before the meeting ends there. The best in his stable are Polls, King Broomstick, Embracer and the crack California two-year-old, Amon.

Jockey Herman Kaiser, a Louisville boy, is now with R. F. Carman's stable, he having left his former employer, Thomas Hatfield, in Canada the past summer. On account of threatening lung trouble Kaiser fears he cannot make the trip with Mr. Carman to England, and he will probably seek a position with some stable going to Mexico to race, as he believes the climate there will be beneficial to him.

PROGRESS OF RACING OVER IN ENGLAND.

Lady Americus Beaten at York-Lomond's Gimcrack Stakes Through a Foul-Whisk Broom Liked.

London, September 4.—The York meeting furnished all of interest that was to be expected and the Derby meeting of this week promises sport of a character sufficient to whet the appetite of racegoers for the greater excitements of St. Leger week at Doncaster. Quite the sensation of the first day at York was the unexpected defeat of the flying filly, Lady Americus, in the Prince of Wales Plate by Lord Falmouth's Merry Maiden, a daughter of the great racer Zinfandel and Wise Virgin. Lady Americus carried 131 pounds to 116 on the winner, but was expected to win in a canter and was a great favorite at 9 to 4 on. She led to the distance without showing the remarkable speed, with which she ran away from distinguished opponents in the Coventry Stakes at Ascot, and succumbed quickly when challenged by Merry Maiden. An explanation for this unexpected collapse was afforded shortly after the race, when a high fever gave proof that she was a sick horse when sent to the post. She was in a bad way all night, but was saved by assidnous attention, and may make amends later on. Merry Maiden's success was not the only one falling to Lord Falmouth that day, his beautiful three-year-old filly Alice defeating Persephone. Forest Lassic and Arctic Belle in the Yorkshire Oaks, but only in a head finish with Persephone, to which she was giving ten pounds.

The Eber Handicap, formerly the "Great" Eber,

Lord Falmouth that day, his beautiful three-year-old filly Alice defeating Persephone, Forest Lassic and Arctic Belle in the Yorkshire Oaks, but only in a head finish with Persephone, to which she was giving ten pounds.

The Ebor Handicap, formerly the "Great" Ebor, has long been the most important race on the York program in the sense that it has aftracted high-class handcap horses and been the medium of much ante-post betting. The candidates most fancied prior to and on the day of the race had nothing to do with the finish, the winner turning up in the 100 to 12 chance, Pillo, carrying 121 pounds, with last year's winner, Claretof, at 25 to 1, second, and W. Astor's Mirador third, there being seventeen runners. Pillo is a well known good race horse, but was supposed to be hopelessly broken down a year ago, and his rejuvenation is a striking example of the skillful trainers' art in its highest order. The rich Great Yorkshire Stakes furnished Stedfast with another triumph, but Pietri was second and ran ruch a good race as to suggest that he possesses an outside chance of reaping Sf. Leger honors. The famous Gimerack Stakes for two-year olds had a sensational ending. Mr. H. P. Whitney's strapping colt, Flanders, made the running until well into the straight and was then passed by Cylgad and Lomond. Cylgad was first by a neck, but had so seriously bumped and impeded Lomond that he was forthwith disqualified, the race going to Lomond with Flanders second and Newminster II, third. It thus follows that the Manchester turfman, Mr. E. Hulton, will have the high privilege of expounding his views of what will best promote the welfare of the turf when the annual Gimerack dinner comes off next December. It, was thought Mr. J. R. Keene's Catarnet would start for this race, but he was not present, and is in reserve for the rich stakes of the three antuning meetings at Newmarket.

Ante-post betting on the St. Leger is fearly altogether confined to King William, Lycaon and Prince Palatine, although a few other candidates have BUSY SCENES AT WOODBINE.

Final Preparations Being Made for Opening of On tario Jockey Club's Meeting on Saturday.

Toronto, Ont., September 20.—The numerous arrivals, the training gallops of the horses already stabled and the thousand and one preparations for the opening of the Ontario Jockey Club's fall meeting make busy and interesting scenes at Woodbine these days. The track is in the best of order, as testified by half-mile gallops faster than in 50 seconds.

ing make busy and interesting scenes at Woodbine these days. The track is in the best of order, as testified by half-mile gallops faster than in 50 seconds.

The steeplechase course, which includes two new jumps, was open for schooling yesterday, and will also be open tomorrow. The new jumps are a brush feize in the center and a water jump on the back stretch. The brush will be the first jump in the two and one-half miles' course. The other obstacle consists of twelve feet of water and a hedge three feet high.

The best miles yesterday were by the Valley Farm Stable's Denham and Commola, in 1:432, and by J. E. Seagram's Rockville in 1:432, and by J. E. Seagram's Rockville in 1:44.

The Valley Farm Stable's two-year-old White Caps put in a half mile in 492, and Rockspring in 50 seconds. Powderman went a mile in 1:44.

From the Thornellife string, Rose Lawrence did three-quarters in 1:182, Stalmore and Cesarpeia a half in 502. Flotic went a mile in 1:472 and Fair Annie in 1:52. Flower Girl did a half in 493 and half in 934, while Moisant and Eton Blue did three-quarters in 1:184. Wrap went in 1:183 and Stilly Night and Lahore in 1:172.

Havrock, one of J. E. Seagram's King's Plate eligibles, worked a mile in 1:1843, and Robert Cooper did the same. Theo Cook and the two-year-old Elma receled off three-eighths in 362 seconds. G. M. Hendrie's Steamboat did a half mile in 512, Mr. Giddings' Ondramon put in five-eighths in 1:032, which was only a fifth of a second slower than My Gal's work.

The William Garth, G. R. Tompkins, Mrs. L. A. Livingston, E. W. Heffner, R. T. McKeever, W. G. King's Dodds, J. W. Burttschell, A. G. Blakeley, T. R. Condran, W. F. Presgrave and Beverwyck stable horses were among yesterday's arrivals.

Starter Dade's assistants are at Woodbine for the purpose of schooling horses at the starting barrier, and trainers are expected to take advantage of their opportunities, so that no unschooled horses shall be sent to the post during race week.

KEENE HORSES READY FOR RACING.

Albany, N. Y., September 20.—Opponents of the Gittins bill, relieving directors of racing associations from liability for betting at the tracks, today expressed the fear that it will pass.

The Rev. O. R. Miller, state superintendent of the New York Civic League, said:

"It now looks as though the race track people have us beaten. There seems to be a bipartisan combination between the Republicans and Democrats to pass this bill, just as there was a bipartisan combination last year to defeat the direct primary bill. It is evident that the political bosses of both the Republican and Democratic parties have arranged this bipartisan compact and it looks like they have us beaten by one or possibly two votes."

One of former Governor Hughes' staunchest supporters in his campaign for the passage of the Hart-Agnew and Agnew-Perkins measures admitted this afternoon that it was quite likely that the legislature would pass the Gittins bill next week. The opponents of the bill, according to this man, are almost ready to give up the fight, but will struggle on a bit longer. They are hopeful that Governor Dix will not lend his approval to the measure in the event of its passage.

JAMESTOWN DATES ARE CHANGED.

Norfolk, Va., September 20.—Manager Bob Levy of the Jamestown Jockey Club, announces that the fall meeting at that track will open November 2 and continue until November 30. This will mean twenty-five days of racing, and will be the longest meeting ever held in this section. But for the fact that the laws of Virginia will not permit horse racing during the month of December, the fall meeting at the local track would probably continue until november 25, but on account of conflicting with Laurel, Manager Levy decided not to open on October 25, but on account of conflicting with Laurel, Manager Levy decided not to open until November 2.

Governor William Hodges Mann is scheduled to recommend to the next legislature the passage of a strong anti-betting bill for Virginia, and it may be that the fall meeting at the local track will be the last one. But that is doubtful. Prohibition and anti-racing sentiment was dealt a hard blow in the Democratic primary on September 7. Several of the strongest agitators for prohibition and hose known to be opposed to liberal laws on racing and other sports were defeated.

It is highly probable that if the governor attempts to pass an anti-betting bill it will cause the hottest fight ever witnessed in the legislative halls of Virginia.

The officials announced for the fall meeting at the Norfolk race track are:

Ed Cole and Frank J. Bryan, judges: A. B. Dade, starter; F. W. Gerhardy, secretary and clerk of the course: J. H. Smith, clerk of the scales, and George Miller, timer.

AN IMPROVED FORM BOOK

Monthly Racing Form

United States, Canada and Mexico, now carries an index showing each and every start of all horses in training, with firsts, seconds, thirds and track conditions designated. By means of this innovation it will be possible for the user of the Monthly Form Book to instantly determine a horse's ability to run on any sort of track concerning which information is desired, as shown in the following examples:

- LOUISVILLE -

As previously advertised, I have made pretentious arrangements for this meeting, which begins Monday, September 25 and continues until October 14. While there (during the whole of the past week), I succeeded in obtaining the betting privilege of at least one stable. And that is not all.

that is not all.
$10 FOR ENTIRE MEETING.
The splendid success attending my recent trip, as borne out by the winning information I have disseminated at Lexington, spurs me to make the liberal offer of $10 for the entire Louisville meeting. Now here is a chance Not to be overloaded.

OFFER CANCELED SATURDAY

OFFER CANCELED SATURDAY.
On Saturday, September 23, 1 return to Louisville to take personal charge of my office and the welfare of my clients. Therefore, on the latter date the above offer of $10 for the meeting will Positively be canceled. You Should Treble Your Subscription Fee on My Opening Day Special, I saw it work five furlongs in 1:033.

SPECIAL—For the benefit of prospective elients I might add that the following is a correct recapitulation of my One-Horse Wire on Lexington during the present week; Monday, ran third; Tuesday, it won; Wednesday, it won. The names of the horses are purposely withheld. My information is filled with the publisher of this paper—the Night Before.

BERT E. COLLYER (Formerly with the Chicago American.) SUITE 309 OXFORD BLDG.. 118 N. LA SALLE ST., CHICAGO.
